

Complaint Opinion 12 - 01

A complaint was filed alleging a county Commissioner had violated the County Ethics Law by speaking to a County employee in a public place about another County employee. The alleged conversation was that of a negative nature about the employee.

The Ethics Commission dismissed the Complaint as legally insufficient under 8-10 G (3), as the alleged conduct is not under the jurisdiction of the Ethics Commission.